

Posted on November 30, 2014
Written by Nathanael Vissia

This material is the copyrighted property of rfour.org. It is also free. Please use, improve and share this material. But do not ever pay for it, sell it or require any sharing of personal information for it.

An rfour.org Children's Time Message

For more information visit www.rfour.org/childrenstime.html

Written for Sunday, December 21, 2014

4th Sunday of Advent

Lectionary Year B

Scripture: Luke 1:26-38 [Summary: Mary says yes to the Annunciation of Jesus' birth]

Supplies Needed: No supplies needed

ASK / Demonstration (a.k.a The On-Ramp)

- Good morning!
- Can you tell me what an "entrance" is? (It's a doorway; it's what you use to get inside of something)
- What do you think -- Did you use an entrance today to get into the church building? (yes)
- And what do you think you would have done had the entrance to the church building been locked? (knock, look for a key, text/call someone, wait, leave, try another door, break a window to climb in)
- So in other words, an entrance works a lot better if it's open instead of locked, right? (right)
- I bring this up because, in a lot of ways, we can be like an open door or we can be a locked door to God.

TELL (a.k.a The Freeway)

- For instance, in today's story, we hear of a conversation that Mary has with a messenger of God (BTW, that's what "angel" means: messenger of God)
- In that conversation, the angel tells Mary that she will give birth to a baby boy that she is to name Jesus.
- And, this Jesus guy will grow up to be someone who helps people to better learn about and know God.
- So after the messenger gets done saying all of these things, did you hear what Mary said?
- She said, "Here I am" and "Let it be with me" – in other words, she was saying, "OK, sounds good – let's do this!"

- And because Mary says yes to God's plan, then Jesus is born.
- But what if Mary had said "No," to God's plan? What if she had been like a closed and locked door to God and God's plan? [Note: this is meant to be more of a rhetorical question – pause for effect – and then move to the next line]
- This is where you might want to remember how much more difficult this morning would've been had the entrance been locked – if Mary had said no to God, she would've made things much more difficult for God.

SHARE the Good News (a.k.a. The Destination)

- Thankfully, Mary didn't say no to God. She said yes.
- And, because she said yes, she raised a son who also said yes to God and then invited others (including you and me) to learn how to also say yes to allowing God to be in their own lives.
- When we learn to say yes to God and choose to do so, then we, like Jesus and Mary, also become an entrance for God's love, care and hope that we can then share with those who are around us.
- And that's the Good News for today
- Let's pray. This is a repeat-after-me prayer.

CLOSING Prayer

Dear God,

Dear God,

Thank you for Mary...

Thank you for Mary...

...who said yes to your plan.

...who said yes to your plan.

Help us to also say yes...

Help us to also say yes...

...to your plan for us.

...to your plan for us.

Thank you and amen.