Second Sunday after Epiphany

Lectionary Year B

Scripture: John 1:43-51 [Summary: Jesus Lets God's Light In]

Supplies Needed: No supplies needed

ASK (a.k.a. The On-Ramp)

- Good morning!
- I would like to talk with you about windows. Why do you think we have windows? [To see into something; to see out of something]
- Well...why is that useful? [Because it allows us to see where otherwise there would just be a wall]
- Oh! So like the windows here in the sanctuary help us see outside and because we can see outside, the sunlight can get inside!
- Well, then, windows are pretty good and useful things, aren't they!?

TELL (a.k.a. The Freeway)

- In today's scripture story, Philip is telling his friend Nathanael about Jesus.
- Nathanael isn't sure that he's as excited about Jesus as Philip is, but Nathanael does agree to go and meet Jesus
- When Jesus and Nathanael meet, Jesus says some things that lets Nathanael know that Jesus really understands him.
- It is almost like Jesus can see into Nathanael's brain and read the thoughts he is thinking.
- Nathanael thinks that is pretty cool.
- But then Jesus tells him, "If you think that's cool, just wait until I help you see heaven open up!"
- Nathanael agrees that would be even better and chooses to follow Jesus.

SHARE the Good News (a.k.a. The Destination)

- What Jesus meant by “seeing heaven open up” is that if Nathanael or Philip or anyone else chooses to follow Jesus and learn what Jesus is teaching them, then they will be better able to see God.
- It's almost as though by following Jesus, Jesus becomes a window that helps the disciples better see God, where on their own, they wouldn't be able to see God very well or at all.
- Then, as they learn what Jesus is teaching them, the disciples learn how to also become windows that let God's light shine through them which, in turn, helps even more people be able to see God.
- And guess what!? It's not just the first disciples who could learn to be windows that let God's light shine into this world.
- We, too, can choose to follow Jesus and learn what he taught the disciples about God.
- And as we learn what Jesus taught, then we are learning how to be a window that shines God's light into the world and helps other people see God better.
- And that's the Good News for today. Let's pray...
