

Posted on January 7, 2018
Written by Nathanael Vissia

This material is the copyrighted property of rfour.org. It is also free. Please use, improve and share this material. But do not ever pay for it, sell it or require any sharing of personal information for it.

An rfour.org Children's Time Message

For more information visit www.rfour.org/childrenstime.html

Written for Sunday, January 28, 2018

Fourth Sunday after Epiphany

Lectionary Year B

Scripture: Mark 1:21-28 [Summary: Jesus Isn't Afraid Of Our Messes]

Supplies Needed: You will need to assemble a mess. Pack a bag that might include some of the following: mismatched socks, a rumpled shirt or two, scraps of papers, writing utensils, an old cell phone, books/magazines, an empty snack of some kind (like a Wheat Thins box or empty candy wrappers), a couple of movie/jewel cases, remote control, maybe an old slipper, etc.

ASK (a.k.a. The On-Ramp)

- Good morning!
- Has your room at home ever been messy?
- And then, did you have to clean up that messiness?
- Yeah? What kinds of things do you usually have to clean up? (books, toys, clothes, headphones, stuffed animals, other things)
- I have messes at home, too. They usually look like this...[open up your prepared bag and pour out your assembled mess]
- So what do you think – these messes we have at home, do you ever see those type of messes here in the sanctuary?
- No, not so much -- looks pretty clean just about all the time, doesn't it?

TELL (a.k.a. The Freeway)

- Just like we have messes in our homes, we can also have messes inside of us.
- And a lot of times, we think we're supposed to clean those inside messes up on our own.
- We might even think that we need to clean up our messes before we can come here.

- Or – maybe we think we need to hide our messiness when we come here – because it looks pretty clean, right, and it wouldn't be good to make it messy?
- But in today's scripture story, we see someone in Jesus' faith community who decides to spill their inside messiness right in the middle of the worship service.
- The story calls that mess "an unclean spirit."
- But did you notice how Jesus responded to this person's mess?
- Jesus didn't get mad or upset with the person.
- Instead, Jesus helped the person clean up his mess, right then and there.

SHARE the Good News (a.k.a. The Destination)

- Although this sanctuary is almost always clean, that doesn't mean that we have to have everything cleaned up in our own lives to be here.
- In fact, our faith community can actually help us, with God's guidance and love, clean up our messes just like Jesus did in today's scripture story.
- For example, I've come here and I've made a mess.
- So maybe you would help me clean it up?
- [Put your mess back into the bag with the help of the kids]
- Thank you very much for your help in cleaning up my mess.
- Not only do we not need to be all cleaned up to be part of the church, but once we invite others in the faith community to know about our messes, then together and with God's help, we can help each other clean up and be free of our messes.
- That's the good news for today. Let's pray...

CLOSING Prayer

Dear God,

Dear God,

Thank you for Jesus...

Thank you for Jesus...

...who shows us...

...who shows us...

...how to receive and share...

...how to receive and share...

...your healing love...

...your healing love...

...even when things are messy.

...even when things are messy.

Thank you and amen.