Pentecost

Lectionary Year B

Scripture: Acts 2:1-21 [Summary: Pentecost Is A Repeatable Event]

Supplies Needed: Use the 4 pictures located at the end of this PDF

ASK (a.k.a The On-Ramp)

- Good morning!
- To get started, I want to show you some pictures from different Bible stories.
- Here are four pictures of four Bible stories [note: you'll want to show these out of order, like the following list]:
 - We have today's story, Pentecost, where the disciples (including Jesus' mom, Mary) receive God's Holy Spirit. [hold up picture and then put on the ground, face-up]
 - We have Jesus teaching to his disciples [hold up picture and then put on the ground, face-up]
 - We have Jesus' baptism where he receives God's Holy Spirit [hold up picture and then put on the ground, face-up]
 - We have Jesus calling his disciples to follow him [hold up picture and then put on the ground, face-up]
- These pictures are not in the order in which they happened and I'm hoping you can help me put them in order. [Note: You might have to give them some clues]
- Which picture and story do you think happened first? (Baptism)
- That's right! Which picture and story do you think happened second? (Jesus calls his disciples)
- [Continue until done. Correct order: Jesus' baptism, Jesus calls disciples, Jesus teaches the disciples, Pentecost]
- You did it! Well done!

TELL (a.k.a. The Freeway)

- In today's scripture reading, we hear the story of Pentecost.
- Pentecost is when we see the disciples put into action everything they had learned from and experienced with Jesus:
 - They spent time praying together like Jesus taught them
 - Then they received God's Holy spirit like Jesus taught them
 - To the crowds, they then shared the same good news that Jesus taught them
- The result of the disciples doing what Jesus taught them is that a whole lot of people chose to become disciples of the disciples.
- The disciples had become the teacher for others, just like Jesus had been their teacher!

SHARE the Good News (a.k.a. The Destination)

- If we look at the first few things that Jesus did, we see that he [point at pictures while speaking]: Receives God's Spirit, invites the disciples to follow him, and teaches the disciples about God.
- And then in today's story, we see the disciples doing those exact same things that Jesus did.
- The reason the disciples could do the things they did in today's story is because earlier on, Jesus had showed and taught them how.
- And guess what? Just like the disciples learned what to do from Jesus, so can we.
- Just like the disciples prayed together and received God's Spirit, so can we.
- Just like the disciples shared the good news with others, so can we.
- One of the exciting things about Pentecost, I think, is that it's not just a very important event that happened in the past; Pentecost is also something that can happen again and again – even today – to, for, and by us.
- And that's the good news for today. Let's pray.

CLOSING Prayer

Dear God,

Dear God,

Thank you for the disciples...

Thank you for the disciples...

...who learned from Jesus...

...who learned from Jesus...

...how to receive your love and spirit...

...how to receive your love and spirit...

...and then share it with others.

...and then share it with others.

Help us to do the same.

Help us to do the same.

Thank you and Amen
